What is Adopt a Building?

Food Brings Us Together

FULL ADOPTION AT $7,500 PER YEAR PROVIDES UP TO 4,500 MEALS FOR RESIDENTS IN YOUR ADOPTED LOW-INCOME APARTMENT BUILDING.

- Make a meaningful impact on reducing hunger and building community in Portland
- Create an opportunity to engage with your community through volunteering
- Be publicly recognized for your commitment to the community.

The total cost to operate Lift UP food security and community building services in each affordable housing building is $12,500 annually. Lift UP provides up to a 40% match of Adopted funds in each building!

Delivered Food Boxes

$3,500 provides 2,520 meals a year delivered to the doors of vulnerable residents.

Lift UP total cost: $6,000

Ten home-bound residents unable to travel to Preston's Pantry receive a monthly Delivered Food Box at their doors with a week's supply of fresh produce, meat, dairy items, and pantry staples. If desired, volunteers from your group will have the chance to help pack boxes and deliver them to the door of residents.

Residents enjoying dinner made at Supper Club

Supper Club

$2,500 provides 180 hot meals a year and the education to cook independently.

Lift UP total cost: $4300

Supper Club is a four-course healthy-eating workshop series that focuses on essential culinary skills, healthy nutrition habits, and community building between neighbors. Volunteers from your organization are able to volunteer to support Supper Club.

Emergency Food Closet

$1,500 provides 1,800 stable meals a year in times of extreme food insecurity.

Lift UP total cost: $2,200

On-site Emergency Food Closets provide non-perishable options for residents experiencing an unexpected food shortage.
